PRESIDENT

Greeted by Cheering Crowd Upon His Arrival At Cincinnati

ESCORTED FROM STATION

Through Streets Thronged With People Eager to Get a Glimpse of the Chief Executive—In His Address Urges People to Prepare for the Greater Work Ahead of Nation

(Associated Press Telegram) Cincinnati, October 26.—President Wilson speaking at Cincinnati's reception to him at the Chamber of Commerce here today, urged the need for "spiritual unity" on the part of the people of the United States to prepare for greater work ahead of the nation.

The president and Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by a large committee, walked a block from the hotel to the Chamber of Commerce for the official reception ceremonies. The hall was packed with people. The president of the chamber presided. Mayor George Puchta extending "a cordial welcome" said the people of Cincinnati are among the most loyal in the nation.

"I cannot say I feel strange in Cincinnati because so many of my early recollections are connected with this great state," responded the president. "It is very oppressive among friends to be upon dress parade. It is difficult for me to speak my personal views."

"I am perfectly content today to throw off the disguise of dignity. Seriously speaking there are a great many things Ohio reminds me of that are the essence of American life. Therefore whenever I come to Ohio some of the zest of the history of America gets in my blood. There is no zest in monopoly. The real zest is to feel that you are a part of a great company of people working for human liberty."

"The problem now is to have a spiritual bond of unity joining us from coast to coast."

"Every man has the task of believing in himself what he would have the whole world believe the United States to be. Our tasks are to be much greater in the future. We have got to make a team of ourselves and pull the great chariot in which rides the statue of liberty."

The president held a reception in the chamber of commerce following his address and was kept busy shaking hands with the enormous throng for more than half an hour.

President Wilson on his final middle western swing of the campaign came here today for the first time in his administration. Arriving at 11:30 a. m. he was met by a cheering crowd and a large reception committee at the Union station and was immediately taken by automobile through the streets, thronged with people to a hotel.

SIX ADULTS AND FIVE CHILDREN BURN TO DEATH

(Associated Press Telegram) Farnham, Que., October 26.—Six adults and five children at least, lost their lives in a fire which destroyed St. Elizabeth hospital early today. This forenoon the ruins were still blazing and it was impossible to approach them to search for the 15 to 25 persons reported missing. Farnham is 44 miles from Montreal.

More than 350 persons were asleep in the hospital when the blaze was discovered. Unable to make their way to safety by means of the fire escape, nearly all of them jumped from windows.

Twenty-five children who leaped from the third story were badly injured when they landed on stone pavements.

The hospital and a laundry were destroyed and several adjacent buildings were damaged by smoke and water. The fire is believed to have started in a defective chimney. The institution was managed by the Grey Nuns, and comprised two buildings, one for hospital patients, the other a school for children.

YOUTHS ADMIT ROBBERY THIRTY; GOT OVER $5,000

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, Oct. 26.—Three youths, the oldest 21, were to be arraigned in police court today charged with a sensational series of holdups during the past week which, police say, netted them nearly $5,000.

For nearly a week auto bandits, seemingly without fear of police interference held up from three to six victims each night.

Arthur Weber, 21, Eugene Heney, 19, and Henry Weber, 19, were arrested late yesterday charged with robbery and violating the automobile law. Detective Chief Rabshaw says the trio have confessed to more than 30 robberies and have described their operations.

The trio are accused of driving off the automobile of Walter C. Priest of Lakewood on Oct. 19. Police say Priest's auto was driven to Toledo after it was stolen. At Toledo Priest's auto was abandoned, another was taken and used in a trip to Fremont where a car belonging to George H. Engler was taken. Chief of Detectives Rabshaw says. An unloaded revolver was used in the holdups, Rabshaw says.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Oct. 26.—Indications today were that the price of turkeys on the Columbus market this Thanksgiving time will be from 30 to 35 cents a pound, dressed. Pressure of Von Mackensen in Dobrudja Makes Situation Less Critical

DEFENDING FORCES' SPLIT

Russians Report Teutonic Attack in Carpathians Was Repulsed—Germans Cease Counter Attack in Verdun Region—French Expect to Regain Fort Vaux, Lost Last Spring

(Associated Press Telegram) London, Oct. 26.—The situation of the defeated Russo-Rumanian army in Dobrudja appears slightly less critical in the light of today's official report from Petrograd which describes the pressure of Field Marshal von Mackensen's armies as somewhat weakened.

Unofficial dispatches from Berlin report that the entente forces were split into two parts with the fall of Tchernavoda, some of the troops escaping over the great bridge across the Danube, while the others fled northward in Dobrudja.

Apparently the sections remaining in the Black sea province have finally been able to make something of a stand against the onrush of the Bulgarians, Germans and Turks, north of the Constantza-Tchernavoda line. Von Mackensen's guns are now said to be dominating the bridge.

As the whole situation for Rumania is considered by military commentators in Berlin as increasingly precarious in connection with the operations in Dobrudja and the Austro-German successes in the mountain passes on the north. Petrograd, however asserts that the Teutonic pressure also has been arrested in these Transylvania border regions. Further north in the Carpathians near Capul mountain the Russians report the repulse of a Teutonic attack.

On the western front the Germans are reported by Paris to have ceased their counter-attacks at Verdun, following the French success in Tuesday's drive which resulted in the recapture of Fort Douaumont and the advance of the French lines along a wide front in this sector. The new French positions, which are declared to have been held intact, are still under German artillery fire, however. French military writers declare that the position of Fort Vaux is such that its capture by the French is momentarily expected.

In Macedonia new entente advances are announced. French cavalry has occupied the villages of the Greco-Albanian border while the Serbians have driven the Bulgarians and Germans further back in the region of the Cerna river southeast of Monastir according to Paris. The British report carrying out successful naval attacks on the railway stations at Bak and Drama on the Constantinople-Saloniki railway.

BREAD PRICES TO FOLLOW ADVANCE OF WHEAT FLOUR

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Increased prices for bread within the next few days were again predicted by members of the master bakers' association today, following increases in the cost of flour yesterday. It was said that there were few bakers in the city with more than a week's supply of flour on hand. Flour yesterday was quoted to Chicago housewives at $11 a barrel. Investigation into the cause of rising food prices is to be started by the committee on health of the city council.

GERMANS COWER BEFORE ARTILLERY FIRE OF FRENCH

(Associated Press Telegram) With the French Army at Verdun, Oct. 24.—(Delayed.)—The French today recaptured from the German Crown Prince in six hours and twenty minutes, territory northeast of Verdun which it had lost the Germans five months of the hardest fighting and a half million men to take earlier this year.

The effect of the victory was to give the French freedom of movement around Verdun, permitting them to prepare for a further advance when the opportunity is ripe, at the same time dealing a stunning blow when the Germans thought the French striking force was entirely assembled in the Somme region. The victory also leaves Fort Vaux, now in German hands, perilously open to attack.

Such a brilliant success in so short a time, was not expected even by the most optimistic when the order for the offensive was given at 11:30 o'clock this morning. For a couple of days the artillery preparation by the French batteries had been of the most extreme severity. Monday the Germans opened with every available battery, believing a French attack was about to be delivered. Not a single Frenchman stirred. Tuesday at dawn a fresh tornado of fire by the French (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

COAL AND COKE DOUBLE IN PRICE IN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Oct. 26.—Steel mills as well as other manufacturing plants throughout the Pittsburgh district face a serious situation today as a result of an advance of nearly 100 per cent, within the last two weeks in the price of furnace coke together with a jump in the price of coal. If the cost of fuel goes much higher, it was declared possible that some furnaces would be banked for the present because the price of pig iron has not kept pace with the advance in coke.

Furnace coke, ten days ago, sold in the local market at from $3.50 to $4 a ton. This week it sold at $7.50 to $7.75 a ton and yesterday dealers demanded $8 for the best grade. Equally abnormal conditions prevail in the local coal market. Anthracite coal has been advanced to $8.50 a ton while bituminous sells from two to three cents more a bushel than one year ago. Scarcity of labor and car shortage is given as the cause for the advance in the price of coal and coke.

NITRO

Used by Safe Blower in Pataskala Bank But Efforts Fail

THIRD DOOR RESISTED

Burglars Worked Unmolested and Slumbers of Village People Were Undisturbed By Noise of Explosions Which Were Well Muffled—Five Thousand Dollar Prize Was Lost

Yeggmans early this morning made an unsuccessful attempt to blow the safe of the People's Banking company at Pataskala. They succeeded in getting through the first door, wrenching the time lock loose and blowing off a part of the second door but did not get to the strong box where the cash is kept. Had they succeeded they would have had a chance to carry away between $4,000 and $5,000, the amount of money in the safe.

The bank is located on the south side of the railway tracks on Depot street, a distance of about 150 yards from the track and catercornered from the postoffice. The telephone office, with a night operator always on duty, is opposite the bank building. The village has no night patrolman, but there is a night watchman on duty at the railway crossing. Neither he nor the telephone operator on duty last night, heard the explosion or saw any one on the street after midnight. No one has been found in the village who heard the noise of the explosion, but this is easily accounted for by the fact that the safe was wrapped in dampened blankets and rag carpet, to deaden the sound.

Persons passing the bank building at an early hour this morning noticed the wreckage in the room and called the bank officials. An investigation disclosed the fact that the safe blowers must have entered the front door with a skeleton key, or else picked the lock, as the back door, protected by iron bars, was intact. There was no evidence that a "jimmy" had been used to force an entrance as there was no marks upon the woodwork.

Previous to forcing an entrance to the bank the yeggs broke into McFadden and Arnold's livery stable and stole a dozen blankets and a quantity of rag carpet. This was dampened and wrapped around the safe. Nitroglycerine was used and the front door was blown off, it remaining intact and undamaged except being torn from its fastenings. The second door though was the one which wrought havoc. It was blown across the room, striking the bank counter and blowing a furrow along the polished surface. All the glass in the cage was broken as well as the grill around the counters.

The night marauders could not get through the third door to the strong box and they left without securing any booty. The damage to the bank fixtures and safe will be about $1,200, fully protected by burglar insurance. It was impossible to open the safe this morning and an expert has been sent for.

The People's Banking Company is capitalized at $25,000. James Atkinson is president of the institution and Cary Baird cashier. These gentlemen believe that the yeggs waited until a freight train pulled through the village and then touched off the explosives. The safe in the bank will be repaired at once and business was resumed today as usual.

WHAT THE DOCTOR KNOWS

KIDNEYS MUST BE RIGHT TO INSURE HEALTH.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physicians in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's Disease, which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in one year, in the State of New York alone. Therefore it is particularly necessary to pay more attention to the health of these important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

When your kidneys require attention, get Swamp-Root at once from any pharmacy. It is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c. and $1.00.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Newark Daily Advocate.—Advertisement.

WAR PRISONER IN HOLLAND WRITES ADVOCATE

The following letter addressed "To Sir of Editor of the Journal, Advocate, Newark, Ohio, U. S. A." dated Amersfoort, Holland, has just been received from an interned Belgian soldier:

"Amersfoort, Oct. 2, 1916.

"Dear Sir: At first will be so kind as to allow of introducing myself. I am a Belgian soldier interned at Amersfoort, Holland, since October, 1914, who wants some distraction on account of the longness of my captivity. I therefore began to collect poststamps but having not correspondents I allow myself to ask if you would be so kind as to impress in your honored journal, The Advocate, an advertisement expressed as follows:

"The Belgian interned soldier, Cyrille Van Lulle, 3d Jagers regiment camp of Amersfoort, Holland, asks respectfully to forward him some used post stamps.

"Pray do not refuse me this kindness for which I am much obliged to you. I have, sir, the honour to be your very humble obedient servant.

"CYRILLE VAN LULLE."

The foregoing letter postmarked in Holland, October 2, was marked "no charge for postage prisoner war mail." was opened and again sealed by censor No. 4021 and reached its destination today.

A few weeks ago a letter somewhat similar was received by The Advocate from Alex. de Rocker, Fifth Belgian infantry Regt. 3-3 Zeist, Holland. The Rocker letter was published in this paper and a number of people reported to this office that they had complied with Rocker's request for used postage stamps. Doubtless others will respond to Prisoner Van Lulle's appeal.

GERMANS COWER

brought only a feeble reply, the Germans apparently regarding the bombardment as a mere demonstration. The French infantry meanwhile stood at arms, awaiting the order to spring forward. Many of them had participated in the defense of Verdun from the opening of the great German attack in February. All of them were most cheerful at the prospect of giving a blow, instead of continually receiving one.

Early in the day evidence came of the awfulness of the French artillery fire in the shape of sixty German deserters, including two officers, who unable to stand the torrents of shells, walked out and surrendered before the infantry struggle began.

The correspondent watched the progress of the fight from a position commanding a panoramic view of the whole battle field. Suddenly about 11:30 o'clock the curtain of French shells which had pounded the German trenches into flatness was lifted slightly and dropped again with the utmost precision just behind the German line.

Officers waited, watches in hand, for the chosen moment. Then the French infantry, covered with mud and sand, and soaked to the skin, went over the top of their positions. Despite the coyness of the uneven ground they rapidly gained the German lines, where they found amid killed and wounded hundreds of Germans, who, half dazed, mostly surrendered after slight resistance.

The first work thus taken was the Haudremont quarries, from which the French were able to push onward with an unexpected sweep. Thieumont fell early and the Faussecote ravines were taken. Then the attacking waves rolled irresistibly forward and round the village and fort of Doaumont, which was encircled just as dusk fell at 6 o'clock in the evening and their garrisons were taken prisoner.

Nightfall brought only a slight cessation from the artillery whose flashes lighted up the sky. Along the field tracks, pitted with shell holes great batches of prisoners were escorted to the rear. Constant additions are being made hourly to the total of captured, which comprises a hundred officers. Many were found covering in shell holes until detachments of the French cleared up the battlefield. General Joffre witnessed the opening of the attack, but as soon as he saw everything progressing well, he hurried away.

Fort Douaumont in the Verdun region was evacuated by the German garrison prior to its capture by the French, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters. Further French attacks against Fort Douaumont and also Fort Vaux yesterday were repulsed by the Germans, the statement adds.

The admiralty today made the following announcement:

"In the month of September, 141 hostile merchantmen, with an aggregate tonnage of 182,000 tons were sunk or brought in by submarines of the central powers or destroyed by mines. Thirteen captains of hostile ships were taken prisoner and three cannon of armed steamers were captured. In addition 39 neutral merchantships of an aggregate of 72,000 tons were sunk for carrying contraband."

Field Marshal von Mackensen is progressing with his operations against the Russo-Rumanian operations in Dobrudja, the war office announced today. The bridge over the Danube has been blown up by the Rumanians, the announcement states.

Teutonic troops have pushed their way further into Rumanian territory on the northern front according to today's war office announcement. Ground has been gained on the road to Sinaya.

Russian battalions yesterday evening made an advance without artillery preparation against the German positions to the west of Lutsk in Valhynia, says today's German official statement. The storming Russian waves, the statement adds, broke down under the German artillery fire.

HUGHES NOW IN HOME STRETCH OF CAMPAIGN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Hartford, Conn., October 26.—Charles E. Hughes went into what he termed "the home stretch of the campaign" with the opening speech here today of his last trip before election day. The nominee, in a theater, spoke before an audience composed partly of workers in munition plants nearby.

"This is no time for complacency," he said. "This is no time for political talk about prosperity. It is a time for thought. When the men now in the trenches of Europe are withdrawn to follow the pursuits of peace, the abnormal stimulus of the war will be withdrawn under the men in this country now engaged in satisfying the demands of Europe at war will no longer have that demand to satisfy."

"It is a new Europe we will have to meet, a disciplined, organized Europe and we should meet it with a new United States. And you can no more run this country in the coming years on the tariff principle of our opponents than you can fly to the moon."

Mr. Hughes spoke also for the maintenance of American rights.

four speeches, a reception at lunch, a dinner and an automobile ride. Arrangements for his entertainment were made by the Non-Partisan City club. Mayor George Puchta, a Republican, officially welcomed him. Local Democrats, however, gave a political color to the president's visit by their cheering.

Because of the determined fight for Ohio's 24 electoral votes being made by both parties administration officials watched the spirit of Mr. Wilson's reception with especial attention. They expressed themselves as well pleased. Cincinnati's large foreign born population added interest to his visit.

Although a short period late this afternoon was set aside for "rest" for the president he expected to be busy from the time of his arrival until his departure tonight at 10:00 o'clock for Shadow Lawn. Mrs. Wilson, dressed in a dark gown and wearing a bouquet of flowers accompanied the president throughout the day. She was made an honorary member of the Women's City club which entertained the president at lunch.

On his way here this morning Mr. Wilson was greeted by large crowds at half a dozen Ohio towns through which he passed. He appeared on the observation platform of his private car at each stop, shook hands with as many people as possible, exchanged laughing remarks, and thanked the crowds for coming out in such large numbers to see him.

A shrill chorus of locomotive whistles in the railroad yards here as the president came in furnished an unusual feature of his reception. The railroad engineers and firemen stood on their engines and waved to Mr. Wilson.

During the entire ride from the station to the hotel, the president stood in his automobile waving his hat to the people who cheered him from the windows of high buildings. Bombs bursting high in the air added to the din.

A special force of secret service men and police tried vainly to keep the crowds off the streets. "Wilson! Wilson!"

Sharp calls of the crowd were greeted by the president as he rode through packed streets from the Chamber of Commerce to a hotel for the women's luncheon. He stood and sang "America" with the hosts just after entering the lunch room. He laughed when women at table after table had waters remove jars of flowers so they could see him.

In his Chamber of Commerce speech President Wilson said in part:

"One of the things that is denied me in the circumstances is an absolutely free expression of my personal opinion. The dignity of the office restrains even one of Scotch-Irish ancestry from letting go, and it is very oppressive among friends, among many familiar friends, to be on dress parade. I feel very much like the woman in the side show who says on the thought she saw, a man read a newspaper through a two inch board. She said here, let me out of this place. It isn't any place for me with these thin things on. For the time being therefore I feel that there is some danger of my penetrating my disguise and I am perfectly content for the day to throw off the disguise and to enjoy the comradeship and welcome which you so royally extend me."

"The great stream of the energy of this country flowed very early in to Ohio, the same mixture of blood and combination of energies that have characterized the country from one side to the other first heron to manifest themselves upon an imperial scale in this part of the world."

"Therefore, whenever I come to Ohio I feel as if some of the zest of the history that is behind us, inevitably got into my thought. That zest consists in this: I do not think a man can have real zest in a game that he plays all by himself. I do not think there is any zest in secrecy. I do not think any zest in the monopoly of anything. The real zest is when you have joined your strength with the strength of your fellow citizens, when you feel that you are part of a great army of liberal spirits, moving forward towards the conquest of human liberty."

"That is the sort of picture I got into my mind whenever I think of the great tidal movement of American history. For a long time we had a frontier, you remember. We have no frontier anymore, unless it is in the Philippines; we have no frontier on this continent. This great tidal of life has filled the whole scene and extent of the continent, and now the problem, my fellow citizens is to see that a genuine spiritual unity binds it together from coast to coast. Unless there is spiritual unity in America, America is not herself."

GIRL IS FREED FROM A CHARGE MANSLAUGHTER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Oct. 26.—The grand jury today freed Vera Van Dorn, known as "The Death Mystery Girl." A year ago Maude Acker was shot and killed in a resort here. Several witnesses testified before the coroner that she had committed suicide and a verdict to the effect was returned.

A few weeks ago Miss Van Dorn told the police that she had shot Miss Acker; that the shooting was accidental and that several persons in the resort had agreed to tell the suicide story fearing that they might otherwise be prosecuted. Miss Van Dorn was then held for manslaughter. Her defense was that the shooting was accidental.

HUGHES NOW IN HOME STRETCH OF CAMPAIGN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Hartford, Conn., October 26.—Charles E. Hughes went into what he termed "the home stretch of the campaign" with the opening speech here today of his last trip before election day. The nominee, in a theater, spoke before an audience composed partly of workers in munition plants nearby.

"This is no time for complacency," he said. "This is no time for political talk about prosperity. It is a time for thought. When the men now in the trenches of Europe are withdrawn to follow the pursuits of peace, the abnormal stimulus of the war will be withdrawn under the men in this country now engaged in satisfying the demands of Europe at war will no longer have that demand to satisfy."

"It is a new Europe we will have to meet, a disciplined, organized Europe and we should meet it with a new United States. And you can no more run this country in the coming years on the tariff principle of our opponents than you can fly to the moon."

Mr. Hughes spoke also for the maintenance of American rights.

has not found herself, and one of the things that is most interesting now is that America is finding herself, not only so far as her own domestic task is concerned, but also in respect of the place she is to occupy and the part she is to play in the world at large.

"It is said that a vote for me is a vote for war," he said. "It is said that the alternative of the administration's policy is war. A vote for me is a vote for maintaining our lasting peace and security by our self respect and the confidence and friendship of all nations."

"So that every American has this task, to exemplify in himself in his own spirit and in his own action that he would wish all the world to know America to be. There is no other nation in which it can be said that the character of the government and the action of the government so entirely depends upon the character and action of the individual citizen and just as soon as we get that ardor in our thought, we are ready for all the great tasks that lie ahead of us for the tasks of America in the future are incomparably greater than the tasks of America in the past. We have now to make a team of ourselves and pull for all the world the great chariot in which rides the Goddess of Liberty."

In his speech before the Women's City Club here, President Wilson, addressing the women as "fellow citizens," said he could speak to women on public questions just as he could speak to men. He said he approved of city clubs because they helped build up this community opinion and assisted to make good cities.

"After all," he said, "the real problem before the nation is to make a community of it. I am very glad during this campaign to discuss these things which have no connection with the campaigns."

Urged to say a few words he declared: "I'll say this with a great deal of cordiality, that it is very delightful to be greeted in this way. It shows a large number of my fellow citizens believe in me anyway." He retired before reaching Cumberland.

An Alphabetical Atrocity.

"An American aeroplane," asserted Adam arrogantly, "always ascends."

Admiring Adam, as an amateur always admires an authority among aeronauts, Anna acquiesced and acquired an American aeroplane, as Adam advised.

Arabella abandoned an antagonistic attitude, although angry at Anna's act. Adam, annoyed at Arabella's antagonism, advocated an afternoon ascension.

Anna agreed.

Afternoon arrived, as also artists, amateurs, Anna and Arabella.

Assuming an animated attitude, Anna and Arabella attracted admiring attention as Anna's American aeroplane airily arose.

Adam arrived as Arabella and Anna alighted.

"Adam," acknowledged Arabella afterward, "although arrogant, always advises aright. American aeroplanes always ascend, and amateurs ardently admire an air annihilating aeroplane." —Xouth's Companion.

Laughter and Crying.

Why do we laugh when a man slips on a banana peel?

The latest answer to this ancient question comes from Dr. George W. Crile in "The Origin and Nature of Emotions." It may be summed up briefly in the words of the Journal of Heredity, "Laughter and crying are two forms of the same mechanism—a human safety valve to prevent the results of emotion from injuring the body."

According to Dr. Crile, "the muscular action of laughter clears the system of the energizing substances which have been mobilized in various parts of the body for other actions." Your first impulse is to rush to the aid of the falling man. When he picks himself up unhurt there is no need to help him, so your system relieves itself in laughter. If he breaks his skull you help him and thus consume the energy without laughter.

He Succeeded.

NOW BOOKING METROPOLITAN ATTRACTIONS

Local Theatrical Manager Fast Placing Newark Among the Leading Cities of the Country.

The reputation of Newark as one of the best theatrical towns in Ohio is being firmly established through the hustling efforts of Manager Geo. M. Fenberg, who took charge of the Auditorium theatre on June 1, and who through his extensive acquaintance with the theatrical booking houses, has been successful in bringing to Newark some of the metropolitan Broadway attractions. These bookings were not made until after

GEO. M. FENBERG.

Manager Fenberg had proved that Newark was far from a dead one, by being accorded liberal patronage by the theatre-loving people of the city. Manager Fenberg's latest booking was made today, "Common Clay," the great play made famous by Jane Cowl and John Mason, the play running for over two solid years at the Julian Eltinge theatre in New York city. The Al Woods company has closed with Manager Fenberg to play Newark on Friday evening, Dec. 15, starring the famous actor, John Mason, now playing in Chicago. This will be one of the season's really big things. Mr. Fenberg also closed today with H. M. Berman, special representative of the Arcturion Pictures Corporation, for the presentation at the Auditorium of the special Mary Pickford pictures, in which she appears as the star of her own producing company. No less than four or more than eight plays per year will be produced. The first picture to be shown here will be "Less Than the Dust," a picturesque story of modern India in which Miss Pickford as a little English castaway has developed a brand new characterization of intense power, followed by all the sweet and adorable qualities which have given her such a tremendous and devoted following among theatre goers. These pictures will be the most expensive and elaborate ever shown in Newark, costing the theatre management a little fortune.

Among a few of the other Metropolitan successes booked are Joe Webber's "The Only Girl," next Wednesday night, Selwyn & Company's "Fair and Warmer," the great musical comedy, "The Melting of Molly," with Irene Franklin in the leading role and the possibility of a Winter Garden production and a number of others.

All that is necessary to keep this city in the foreground is the patronage and backing of Newark theatre goers and if they will accord Manager Fenberg their co-operation, big city attractions will be brought here throughout the season.

The novel display pictured above is worthy of mention, not so much for its artistic merit as for the novelty of the idea and the effective manner in which the idea was carried out.

The display was made in connection with "Edison Week," a sales scheme promoted by the manufacturers of the Edison instrument termed the "re-creation of music." It shows an aged man and his helmet seated in their humble home, listening to the strains of "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," coming from an Edison Diamond Disk phonograph. The strains of the music so lifelike, recall to this aged couple the days of their youth when they strolled together through the lane to the old mill. This picture of their youth is shown as a vision, cleverly painted upon the canvass which forms the background of the window.

Election Frauds In Ohio Probed By Federal Men

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Oct. 26.—New impetus to the federal inquiry into electric frauds was given today with the appointment of Frank C. Dailey, of Indianapolis, formerly United States attorney for the district of Indiana, as special assistant to the attorney general in charge of investigations and prosecutions of election law violations in Indiana, Ohio and Illinois. Assistant Attorney General Graham will have charge of the Washington end of the investigation.

LEASES THEATRE FOR VAUDEVILLE; OPENS MONDAY

Newark is back on the Sun circuit for on next Monday afternoon the Cozy theatre in East Main street will be opened with a musical tabloid, Gracey's "Colonial Maids," which will run two days, matinee and evening, and then a change will be made Wednesday and another Friday, giving the house three changes per week. Vaudeville and musical "tab" will be booked exclusively by the Gus Sun agency.

The proprietor of the new theatre is R. L. Welch of Indianapolis, who has been in the theatrical business all his life. He has operated theatres in Indiana and West Virginia and has had a great deal of experience with vaudeville houses. He has had a force of men on day and night, rushing the work of remodeling the Cozy playhouse so that he would be enabled to open Monday next. He has relaid the floor and rearranged the seats and built four fine dressing rooms.

The ventilation system of the Cozy theatre is its greatest asset. It was installed at a cost of about $5,000, and is the same as that of the Majestic theatre in Columbus. It has been pronounced perfect by state inspectors. Mr. Welch will give daily matinees at 2:15 o'clock and evening performances at 7:30 and 9. The price of admission will be ten and twenty cents. Mr. Franklin Boyce, the well known theatrical man of this city, will assist the new management for the present.

MILITARY

SITUATION IN DOBRUDJA TURNS IN FAVOR OF CENTRAL POWERS SAYS CRITIC.

Russo-Rumanian Forces Now Handicapped by Loss of Railroad From Constanza to Danube.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Berlin, Oct. 26. (By Wirephoto to Sayville).—"The capture of Tchernavoda by Field Marshal von Mackensen's army has definitely turned the military situation in Dobrudja in our favor," writes the military critic of the Overseas News Agency. "The right wing of the combined Bulgarian, German and Turkish forces marched on after the taking of Constanza and in a powerful push advanced 20 kilometres (about 12 miles) beyond that place.

"From that moment the capture of Medjidie was only a question of a few hours as the town was threatened on the flank. The Russo-Rumanian position thus being rolled up from the east, the western point of support on the Danube, the town of Rasova, also had to be given up.

"With this situation brought about, the attacking Teutonic allies stood before the strong Danube bridge head of Tchernavoda which then had to serve as a cover for the hasty retreat of the defeated Russians and Rumanians. Today the railroad line from Constanza to Tchernavoda is completely in the hands of the victorious allies, constituting with the valuable material in locomotives and railroad cars taken with it, a first class base for strategic operations. All this material was abandoned by the fleeing Russians and Rumanians.

"The defeated army was separated into two parts. Those who did not remain on the battlefield or were not taken prisoner, saved themselves by flight across the Tchernavoda bridge over the Danube or to the northward in Dobrudja.

"After the capture of Tchernavoda this famous Danube bridge was dominated by Von Mackensen's guns. The bridge is the largest in all Europe. Its total length across both branches of the Danube and the swampy and frequently impassible Terrain traversed being 17 kilometres. It was completed in 1896.

"With the loss of the Constanza-Tchernavoda line by Rumania, the transport of provisions from Russia will have to be conducted over two minor and less effectively equipped railway lines in Moldavia or by way of the Danube ports of Galez and Ibraia which are by no means comparable to Constanza. At the same time the most important route for artillery transportation by way of the railway from Constanza to Bucharest is virtually eliminated. All shipments must go by way of Ibraia and Ploesti.

"The military situation for the Rumanians during the past two days has become much more critical, especially as the Germans and Austro-Hungarians already have partially conquered the Carpathian passes."

Monster Garage Will House Over 800 Army Auto Trucks

(Associated Press Telegram) San Francisco, Tex., Oct. 26.—Preparations were started today at Fort Sam Houston for the construction of a garage which it is said will be the largest ever enacted.

The structure is to house for the winter more than 800 of the big army motor trucks which have been in use on the border.

Army officers said that 25 companies of thirty-three trucks each, will be brought here within a short time.

Concert Pleased.
It is always a treat to hear Prof. Jesse K. Murdock and Mrs. Murdock but last Tuesday evening they certainly excelled themselves in the concert given at the Neal Avenue M. E. church. Our Advice to Foot Sufferers: Get Into the

EDUCATOR SHOE

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

FOR we know that its orthopaedically correct shape will allow Nature to overcome your corns, bunions, ingrowing nails, flat-foot, etc. Those all come from wearing narrow, bone-bending shoes.

Therefore we say: "Put your own feet, and your family's, into good-looking, long wearing Educators today." Children started in Educators never experience foot troubles.

Make sure that EDUCATOR is branded on the sole. That's your guarantee of the correct Educator shape that "lets the feet grow as they should." Made only by Rice & Hutchins, Inc., 15 High Street, Boston, Mass.

The Pinch Hitter.

When the manager of a baseball team gets ready for a game, he always carefully maps out his method of winning the game, and taking into consideration the strength or weakness of the opposing team makes the best available disposal of his players. He picks out for active playing those most likely to be effective against the other side and leaves on the bench those not so valuable.

But when all his plans go awry, when notwithstanding all his scheming, the other team is winning, and it comes to the ninth inning he often takes from the bench one of his discredited players and substitutes him for an active man, in the hope that he may make a hit and turn the fortunes of the game, and with the full assurance that he can't make matters any worse.

So also in politics, when a player has been advisedly and after due deliberation, placed on the bench, his being called into the game and put in the batting order in the last inning can be evidence of nothing else than a foregone conclusion that he cannot make it worse and of a hope, born of desire, that he may by some lucky fluke make a hit and save the game.

Long ago, for well known and sufficient reasons Theodore Roosevelt was sent to the bench in the game of Ohio politics. The management of the team thought they had other players more effective against the opposition than he was. But now when the other players have been, one after another, weighed in the balance and found wanting, when the opposition has scored runs after run and the game is in the last half of the ninth inning, when there is nothing to lose and everything to gain, he is called off the bench and put in the batting order.

It is recognized that he may offend every German-American, that he may drive away all friends of internal and external peace, that his entrance into the game may result in confusion worse confounded, nevertheless the counsel of desperation prevails and conscious that all other remedies have failed, that the cure may be worse than the disease, it is determined that whatever the result is it can't be worse.

The disuse of torchlight processions is sufficient to indicate a desire for intelligent political campaigns, but it may be due more to the disinclination of the average voter to walk more than a mile.

Feeling the need of effort and struggle and endurance in this time of war, many people would be willing to run very fast and very far to escape having to fight.

REPUBLICAN EDITOR TELLS WHY HE FAVORS WILSON

New York, Oct. 26. — Herbert Croly, editor-in-chief of the New Republic, in a signed article in the current issue of that magazine, announces his intention to support Woodrow Wilson.

Mr. Croly is the author of "The Promise of American Life," in which he expressed "the new nationalism," as he frankly and candidly called it. Mr. Croly supported Woodrow Wilson enthusiastically in 1912. The article by Mr. Croly headed "The Two Parties in 1917," follows in this issue.

"The Republican party now consists of a motley collection of war-mongers united only by an utter ignorance of President Wilson. The Republican party was destroyed by the schism of 1912. The entire party between the two factions of the party raised an issue concerning the meaning of 'state' and the meaning of a 'national' party, which is a fundamental and irremediable issue. Progressives have capitulated. Since the campaign began not one Republican has made a speech which indicates any sympathy with the progressive aspiration to unite a more popular control of government with a more social policy."

"All the Republican have done by way of concession is to nominate a candidate who, because he was not involved in the controversy of 1912, is superficially qualified to ignore it. Such a concession may be sufficient for those Progressives who have forgotten or never meant what they said four years ago but a man who remembers what he then said, as I do, and still believes it, cannot consider the nebulous reign of reason embodied in the goodwill of an executive of the Supreme court fair compensation for the possible surrender of cherished personal convictions."

"The intellectual impoverishment of the Hays campaign is directly traceable to his leadership of a party divided morally against itself. Mr. Hays is obliged to 'nuss' about everything except his opposition to Mr. Wilson, because he realizes only too well the reality of being specific, candid and courageous. The definition of concrete methods of promoting efficiency, of contributing to the social welfare, of embodying the reign of reason in industrial compromises, of asserting American 'isms,' would soon bring to the surface the deep difference of values which underlie the fictitious harmony of the existing Republicanism. It would revive the controversies of four years ago and force Republicans to decide whether they are a thoughtless hodge-podge of conservatism and conservatism is an efficient answer to the terrible and deeply controversial problems of a modern industrial nation."

"Mr. Wilson's preference for going slow and playing safe should be credited with one emphatic compensation. It has not exposed the foreign policy of the country to misunderstanding and repudiation by the less articulate mass of his fellow-countrymen. He has been gradually domesticating in the minds of the plain American people some sense of international responsibility. They are listening to him and have confidence in his leadership. The Republican insistence on the assertion of all American rights and the attacks on Mr. Wilson for making sacrifices in behalf of peace will force a Republican President to be very aggressive in his policy and at the same time to make an influential part of the country suspicious and resentful, should the more aggressive policy lead to war."

"The country is better prepared to meet a crisis in foreign affairs without internal friction, because of the 'bracing' and 'healing' effect of the administration's domestic policy. Mr. Wilson and the Democratic party have begun to perform that work of national reconstruction which the Progressive party declared indispensable to the welfare of the commonwealth. Not only have improvements been made in financial, economic and administrative mechanism, but something has been done to allay the grievances and win the confidence of the long-suffering groups of our fellow citizens."

CATARRE LEADS TO CONSUMPTION

Catarre is a disease of the throat and larynx. It may be removed, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It causes headache and dizziness, and the voice is lost, and the patient suffers the most excruciating pain, and the throat is so sore that the patient cannot swallow. It is a disease that leads to consumption.

Woods' Great Peppermint Cure is the best remedy for catarrh. It is a simple, natural remedy that is effective in all cases of catarrh. It is a cure that is safe and reliable.

ANY Old Thing to Beat Wilson

EX SENATOR SENDS OPEN LETTER TO CANDIDATE HUGHES

New York, Oct. 26.—Another stalwart Republican of the old school—Henry Clay Hansbrough, for 18 years a United States Senator from North Dakota—has declared his support of Mr. Wilson. In an open letter to Mr. Hughes, in which he subscribes himself "A Wilson Republican," Mr. Hansbrough invites the nominee to suppose that he and the President occupied reverse places.

"Suppose," he says, "you had been President of the United States during a period fraught with startling and unexpected world events, and that Woodrow Wilson should resign from the bench and take the stump against you."

"Would not such a campaign on his part impress you with the necessity in his conception of the high duties belonging to your great office?"

Mr. Hansbrough then recounts the great achievements of President Wilson—his peace policy, tariff Commission, Federal Reserve Act, Rural Credit Bill and Eight-hour Measure—assuming that Hughes had caused these to be enacted, and adds:

"Had you exercised your best judgment in conformity with the best interests of all the people, regardless of their party affiliations, and Mr. Wilson seeking to supersede you as the chief executive of the country, were to declare that nothing you had done was right, and everything you had done was wrong, I ask you if the result would not be very depressing to you, a patriotic and fair-minded citizen?"

"This was the ending that prompted me after having in this campaign, to first speak in this campaign, to the re-election of Mr. Wilson."

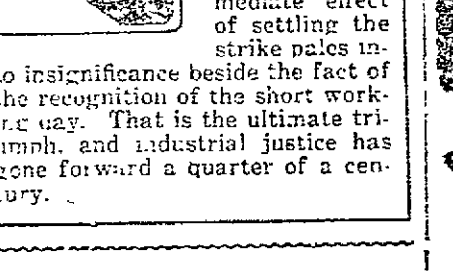

"But for the fact that you are seeking an office wouldn't you cast your vote as I intend to cast mine—for the man who has done his best of best and succeeded in many big things, rather than for the man who ignores the big things and is vaguely with the little things?"

Political purposes, the Federal Reserve Act, Rural Credit Bill and Eight-hour Measure, and while he was governor and while he was governor of New York, ever had, I think he was one of the greatest leaders of his time. I know of no other leader of his time who has done so much for the people of New York and for the people of the United States.

Why I AM FOR WILSON
By Mrs. Antoinette Funk
Progressive Leader of Chicago.

The issues between the parties were drawn where we least expected them, and they were drawn by Mr. Wilson.

When he forced the Eight-hour Law through Congress, one of the most far-reaching acts of any President at any time. The method, the haste and all of the details are of minor importance even the immediate effect of settling the strike pales in the recognition of the short work-day. That is the ultimate triumph, and industrial justice has gone forward a quarter of a century.

REPUBLICAN COLLEGE DEAN OUT FOR WILSON

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Willard E. Hosenkiss, dean of the Northwestern University School of Commerce, a life-long Republican, who was supervisor of the census in the Chicago district under President Taft in 1911, has definitely announced his decision to vote for Woodrow Wilson.

Prof. Hosenkiss's reasons for voting for Wilson instead of Hughes are based primarily upon the Wilson record of achievement and follows in part: "I climbed down off the fence about two weeks ago. I am for Wilson. I make this statement because I believe it is the duty of a citizen to show his colors. I have raised in New York and have always been interested in New York politics. When I began to follow Mr. Wilson's leadership, I found that his career before he was governor and while he was governor was one of the greatest of his time. I know of no other leader of his time who has done so much for the people of New York and for the people of the United States."

"When it comes to legislation the record is clear. No one but a great leader could have put through Congress such an array of wise, constructive measures and some of them have been passed when Wilson was President. I know of no other leader of his time who has done so much for the people of New York and for the people of the United States."

Did You Know
That the origin of the phrase, "Apple of Discord," is to be found in Grecian mythology? According to the story, a golden apple was thrown into an assembly of the gods by the goddess of discord, it bore the inscription, "For the Fairest," and Juno, Venus and Minerva, all claimed it at once. Paris, chosen as judge, gave the apple to Venus, and this decision so inflamed the jealousy and hatred of Juno toward all of the Trojan race, that she did not cease her plots against it until Troy was destroyed.

STUMPING FOR WILSON.
Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 26.—Joseph M. Carey, former Republican Governor of Wyoming, has taken the stump for Woodrow Wilson. His speeches are being received with enthusiastic demonstrations.

DEVELOPMENTS

In these announcements from time to time we aim to give facts only—items that are matters of record or history. We leave it to our readers to draw their own conclusions.

We further aim to discuss securities that possess real tangible worth and that are undergoing certain developments that suggest the wisdom of careful investigation.

Ohio Cities Gas

This company now has 40 producing oil wells—20 more are being drilled. Two of these wells within the past ten days have made new records and are now the biggest producers in the Abin Creek field. An oil refinery is to be erected, and a plant is now under construction for extracting gasoline from gas, both of which will add materially to its present earning capacity.

Ohio Cities Gas stock is now paying a dividend of 10% cash and 5% stock and at this writing is selling around 85 (par value 25), netting about 8%.

Columbia Gas & Electric

The most recent reports about this company indicate continued favorable progress. Its production of gasoline is steadily increasing. New oil wells are being driven in very promising territory. Present earnings are sufficient to make dividends possible, while its contract to supply gas to the Pittsburgh territory will about double the present production of 18,000 gallons of gasoline per day.

Owens Bottle Machine Co.

This company's net earnings are showing substantial increases. Old contracts at low prices of The American Bottle Co., (which company it acquired) have expired and new contracts at materially higher prices are now being executed.

Stringent Rules Made By American League Officials

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Major League baseball players will not only be barred from engaging in exhibit baseball games, but are forbidden to increase their income after the regular season is over by indoor baseball, basketball or football. This was the answer today of President B. B. Johnson of the American League to the protests of David Fultz, president of the Ball Players' Fraternity against fines imposed on members for engaging in post season games. The action of the players' contract covering the points mentioned was exhibited by President Johnson and he said that it had been approved by Mr. Fultz. It forbids participation in "any exhibition game, indoor baseball, basketball or football unless the written consent of the club has first been given."

"We decided not to permit the exhibition games, because the hippodrome features could not be divorced from them," Johnson said.

GERMANS FAIL TO RECOVER IN VERDUN SECTOR

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Oct. 26.—The French troops at Verdun are following up as fast as they can the advantage sweep on Tuesday, and, according to the latest information have closed to within less than 500 yards of Vaux fort. Announcement of the capture is momentarily expected here, thus completely restoring the French line held on February 25.

The German forces at Verdun are retreating so slowly and with such apparent lack of strength that in the opinion of French military men they no longer possess a general reserve but are obliged to withdraw men from one section of the front to reinforce another section in case of need.

Reports of the casualty which are now in hand show the French losses were very light indeed, considerably less than the number of prisoners taken and a large proportion of them was cases in which the men were slightly wounded.

Considerable material was recaptured. The Germans had massed guns of all calibres in the ravine of death, all of which fell into the hands of the French.

The three lieutenant-generals who, under the command of General Mangin, led the attacking from the divisions, were all lieutenant-colonels at the outbreak of the war and had been singled out by General Joffre for promotion on account of their technical ability, energy and initiative.

OLDEST VOTER FOUNDER REPUBLICAN NOW FOR WILSON.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Arm in arm with his 79 year old wife, Jacob Harris, aged 102, of 814 South LaSalle street, the oldest registered voter in Illinois and probably in the United States will walk to the polls on November 7 and both will cast their ballots for Woodrow Wilson. The couple recently celebrated their golden anniversary and had about them 33 descendants, including great grandchildren.

Mr. Harris cast his first vote for Andrew Jackson and was a Democrat until after the war, in which he fought on the side of the Union. He voted for Van Buren, Polk, Pierce, Fillmore, and Buchanan. Conditions led him to change to the Republican party and he voted for Lincoln and every other Republican candidate until 1912. He has now returned to his early love, the Democratic party induced to do so by the character and services of President Wilson.

NEWARK TESTIMONY

Home Proof, Here, There and Everywhere.

When you see Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in this paper you most always find the recommender a Newark resident. It's the same everywhere—in 3,800 towns in the U. S. Forty thousand people publicly thank Doan's. What other kidney remedy can give this proof of merit, honesty and truth? Home testimony must be true or it could not be published here. Read this Newark recommendation. Then insist on having Doan's. You will know what you are getting:

William H. H. Dennis, 50 German St., Newark, says: "I had such a bad back I couldn't attend to my work. If I tried to bend, a sharp stitch caught me. Nights I couldn't sleep well because of dull pains across my loins. Mornings I couldn't stoop to put my shoes on and my wife often had to assist me to dress. The kidney secretions passed too frequently every night and got me out of bed. The secretions also contained heavy sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills completely cured me."

State C. E. Convention Means Many Happy Young People Here

"A convention of young people brings delightful enthusiasm to any city," says Rev. Calvin G. Hazlett, of the First Presbyterian Church. Speaking of the proposal to secure the State C. E. convention for Newark. Continuing, Mr. Hazlett says: "Did you ever attend a great gathering of Young People's Society of Christian Endeavorers as they met in convention in some city? If you did you know what clean, attractive, healthy enthusiasm means to a city. The young people arrive in groups by the score, yes, by hundreds. Everybody is buoyant, hopeful, optimistic, bubbling over with real life."

"The visitors fill the electric cars with the music of their convention songs as they traverse the city going to and from the convention hall. The habit becomes contagious and the conductor is heard humming the refrain of song as he stands on the back platform tallying up his fares and the motorman sounds his gong with rhythmic accompaniment."

"Happy, light-hearted groups swarm into the restaurants and hotels and are instantly recognized by their good natured raillery and laughter. Then they fill the store for every one for the time being is a souvenir hunter, determined to carry something purchased in the convention city back as a perpetual reminder of the best-ever convention."

"Such a convention of young people in any place is just like the rainbow over against the cloud, or the sunshine after the gloom of night. And then when the convention is over the throngs leave the city but the rainbow and the sunshine remain and others will be amazed and you will be astonished to find yourself humming whistling and singing on the way to your office, back of the counter, behind your desk while memory's reel keeps before you the pictures of the healthfulst gayest, sparkling bunch of young people you have ever dreamed of."

"This is what the Christian Endeavor state convention for 1918 will do for you and for our whole city. Be a booster for it no matter what your creed or church affiliation and you will afterwards say that you helped to bring to our city its best advertisement and its choicest investment. Be a booster for the Y. P. S. C. E. convention for 1918."

"CALVIN G. HAZLETT."

A county rally of all Christian Endeavor societies of the county is planned for Sunday afternoon, October 29th in the First Presbyterian church at 3 p. m.

With this meeting begins the campaign to land the state convention for Newark in 1918.

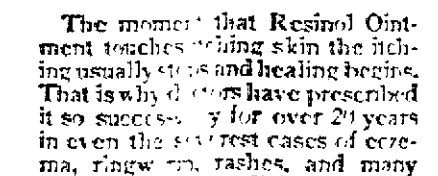

Prof. C. L. Williams of Denison University and A. R. Evans of Newark will address the meeting. These speakers are well known to citizens of Newark and county and their aim will be to enthrall the people on the subject "Our Young People" and what the convention will mean to Newark. No money will be solicited at this meeting, feeling they are safe in this matter.

Presidents of all societies are urged to get their people out and if possible each society come in a body with their pastor.

Plans for future work will be made known at this meeting. Come and find out what you and your society can do.

Members of other societies in the city and county are invited to meet with us, and a cordial invitation is extended to the citizens of Newark and county.

NO CHANCE FOR WITHDRAWAL OF AMERICAN TROOPS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Oct. 26.—Villistas' activity near Chihuahua had the effect today of convincing officials here that no thought should be given soon to removal of guardsmen from border patrol duty or withdrawal of General Pershing's column from Mexico. Fear was felt that if Villa should succeed in his apparent movement to capture Chihuahua, he might find it easy to get control later of nearly all northern Mexico. The entire Mexican situation was regarded as more serious than for many months.

Conditions at Chihuahua were the subject of greatly conflicting reports. Mexican Ambassador Arredondo received from Consul Garcia at El Paso a denial of General Trevino, Carranza commander at Chihuahua, that he was short of ammunition or intended to evacuate the city. Carranza losses in the fighting with Villistas at Santa Ysabel had been slight, he said, and eight thousand troops had arrived to reinforce the garrison. War department reports, however, were that the Villa was encamped five miles from Chihuahua with a considerable force, after having defeated Carranza troops severely, and that Trevino was ready to abandon the city.

How to Judge a Woman By Her Hair

There are always the well-known and semi-humorous methods, such as saying brunettes are quick-tempered. But there is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge a woman's neatness. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes but always use some good preparation made expressly for shampooing. You can enjoy the very best by getting some canthrox from your drug gist and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water when your shampoo is all ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulant scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.—Advertisement.

25,000 VEHICLES PASS BUSY CORNER ON FIFTH AVENUE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Oct. 26.—A count made by agents of the Fifth Avenue association shows that at the corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-second street where traffic is the greatest in the city, 17,151 vehicles go north and south during the ten hours of the business day. East and west traffic bring the total up to about 25,000, which is an increase of more than 1,000 a day over last year. Since traffic on the avenue has to be interrupted for twenty minutes of the hour to allow for travel east and west, the rate at which vehicles pass up and down the avenue is one for every second of the day.

The association gathered these figures to emphasize the necessity of opening parallel streets to relieve the congestion on Fifth avenue.

The one time a man feels like resorting to other measures is when he gets into a peck of trouble.

An Easy Way To Get Fat And Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on dragging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture system, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which eminently embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest "flesh-builder."

Sargol aims through regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 14 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, responsive, efficient.

Evans Drug Co., W. A. Erman, 23 S. 2nd St. and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every pack.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes any one look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast just as you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisonous gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and refreshing the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, hollow cheeks, dull eyes, pinnles, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

NO NEED TO FEAR BALDNESS

Tells How to Make Hair Grow Thick and Lustrous on Bald and Thin Spots.

Thousands of men and women are growing bald every day and don't know the reason why. This is indeed a pity, says a hair specialist, who states that baldness usually comes from carelessness, and that anyone who gives the hair just a little attention should always have an abundance of good, healthy hair. Dandruff and dirt cause baldness by clogging the pores in the scalp, and giving the dandruff germs fertile ground for prolific breeding.

The treatment is very simple: remove the dirt by shampooing at least once in ten days and destroy the dandruff germs by frequently applying a little of the real Parisian Sage, a most efficient preparation that the best druggists everywhere are now recommending as one of the quickest and safest treatments to surely stop itching scalp and falling hair, remove all dandruff and to properly nourish and invigorate the hair roots.

Parisian Sage is also the discriminating woman's favorite hair dressing because it gives her hair a softness and luster that fascinates and compels admiration. A generous bottle costs but little from W. A. Erman, who guarantees it to you.

ALHAMBRA.

A remarkable screen story dealing with an important but little known part of the present great world struggle is the attraction at the Alhambra, Friday and Saturday. "The Intrigue," the Pallas-Paramount play starring beautiful Lenore Ulrich deals with the secret service and the international intrigue for possession of a marvellous invention—an X-ray gun that annihilates at a distance of 25 miles. This terrible force for destruction is about to be added to the awful conflict—when a woman turns against all she is pledged to regard, to the things that she holds most dear and in scenes of strong emotion saves humanity and wins a great reward.

Valeska Suratt.

A motive of revenge, which leads a woman to seek the unhappiness of her husband by humiliating her own unknown daughter, gives a startling and vivid background to the work which Valeska Suratt does for William Fox in her new picture, "The Straight Way." Miss Suratt plays Mary Madison, a woman who has been wronged by her husband, and cannot forgive.

When the story begins, Mary's relations with another man are unjustly suspected by her husband. He casts her off, and she, heartbroken, leaves her baby daughter in the care of a sister. Later, when the husband John Madison, hears that Mary has been killed in a railroad wreck, he takes the daughter into his home.

Many years later, Mary hears that Madison has been elected Governor of his state. She determines to have her vengeance on him for wrecking her life. She makes a plot with Dan Walters, a former convict. Walters is to marry Madison's daughter, Marion. Mary does not know that Marion is her own child, but believes she is Madison's daughter by a second marriage.

After the marriage of Walters and Marion, Mary goes to Madison and tells him the whole story. Then he informs her that Marion was her own daughter.

Mary sees then that her plot had acted as a boomerang. Her only

A big feature act in the olio of the K. C. minstrel will be an amusing travesty, distinguished by the appearance of three local stars—something the syndicate or the Schuberts have never offered Newark theatre-goers. The three stars as they appear on the program are Harry Shields as Caesar Unanimous, a Roman senator; Justin Keely as Vesta Unanimous, his beautiful daughter, and Anthony Stare as Skygactorious, a valiant knight and Vesta's lover. The sketch is said to be full of fun and these three local men have done much to make it a success.

read it. When one has read a story there is always a desire to see it played, to see the characters in real life, and this is undoubtedly the most important reason for the success of "Freckles" as a song play. During its trial performances it drew record-breaking audiences, and with unanimous acclaim the prophecy went forth that its success as a song play would equal its unqualified success as a novel. On regular tour this season, with a complete scenic equipment and a strong company of artists and singers it is playing to capacity audiences everywhere.

Marie Kaiser Coming. Marie Kaiser, the gifted and popular young American soprano, who has been delighting large audiences from the Atlantic to the Pacific in her recitals and concerts, will be heard in Newark on November 6th. This will be a great treat to music lovers of this city, as Miss Kaiser possesses a voice of unusual range, power and beauty which has been evidenced in her engagement by the Edison Company for records and recreation demonstrations throughout the United States, including many of the most prominent musical centers. Indeed with her concert appearances and her photographic work, Miss Kaiser bids fair to excel the record of last season which covered over a hundred concerts in sixty-eight cities of different states.

"The Only Girl," among the recent of the joint writings of Victor Herbert as composer, with Henry Blossom as librettist will be presented at the Auditorium on next Wednesday.

During an engagement which lasted an entire season at the Lyric theatre, New York, this delightful musical comedy was pronounced as the biggest hit seen in that city in years. The answer to this great success is not hard to find as for "The Only Girl," Victor Herbert has composed some of his finest melodies and Henry Blossom has never done better work than that found in this new piece. The fun throughout is decidedly clever and far above the average found in so many musical comedies of recent date.

The company furnished by Joe Weber includes many musical comedy favorites in Laura Arnold, Olga Koller, Adele Hassan, Marion Siggreeves, Nettie Velle, Ernest Torrence, Alfred Fisher, Emanuel A. Tufner, Richard Bartlett, Frank Coombs and others.

SHOTS FIRED AT PENNSY TRAIN AT CONESVILLE

According to Henry Smith, Pennsylvania railroad detective, who was in the city this morning, two Newark men giving their names as Robert Richardson and Pearl Haffer, are being held in Conesville, charged with being members of a gang of men who yesterday afternoon fired a fusillade of shots at a Pennsylvania freight train.

The men were later arrested by five railroad officers and held for trial. Detective Smith was in Newark to investigate the characters of the two men under arrest. The officer did not believe the Newark men guilty other than that they were arrested in company with the men said to have done the shooting. One of the bullets, according to the officer, barely missed striking the conductor of the train as it plowed through the caboose in which he was riding.

GERMANS FLOCK TO SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
 Columbus, Oct. 26.—That constant accessions from German Republican ranks to the cause of President Wilson shows that "the treasonable propaganda of the paid traitors who are attempting to mislead American citizens is not making much headway with the Americans of German ancestry" was the declaration made today in a statement issued by Democratic state headquarters.

The statement calls attention to a resolution signed by hundreds of Germans in Crawford county and Bucyrus while advising against the election of Hughes, "because his most ardent supporters and advisors would have this country engaged in a war with Europe."

The chamber also considered the council committee's proposed remedy of a city market house but has not gone on record as for or against the proposal.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Detectives today recovered $13,000 of the $32,000 stolen from a paymaster of the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. in Detroit, Aug. 4.

Detectives recovered the money from two safety deposit boxes which were rented at a bank here three days after the robbery. The keys to the boxes were received from Dallas, Texas, where James Walton, of St. Louis, was arrested last Saturday, charged with a part in the Detroit robbery.

Detectives left Dallas with Walton for Detroit last night. They have been asked to stop in St. Louis that John T. Lucas paymaster of the Brown Shoe Co. may look at Walton to see if he is one of the men who robbed him of $10,515 of the company's payroll.

WHY I AM FOR WILSON

By F. D. Underwood
President of the Erie Railroad.

No one could fairly accuse President Wilson of playing politics in the railroad negotiations for an eight-hour day. I believe his motives were honest and that he used his best judgment in doing as he did. He did not carry the burden of the railroad or the claims of the brotherhoods as his load; he carried those of the people of the United States.

Many of the Wilson laws have stabilized business, particularly the Federal Reserve and the Rural Credit Acts. We should stand for peace and work for peace, but be fully prepared to defend what we have.

The fight against President Wilson has no larger aspect than an unpatriotic clamor of the "outs" for possession of the things now in the hands of the "ins."

Elbert H. Gary, head of the U. E. Steel Corporation, rules a corporate empire greater in income, resources and area than the average European nation.

FARM BUREAU IS LAUNCHED BY C. OF C.

The Licking County Farm Bureau, which organization the Chamber of Commerce has been actively promoting for the past two months, was launched this afternoon, following a luncheon held at noon in the Masonic temple.

Chairman Homer C. Price, of the agricultural bureau of the Chamber, presided at the meeting.

The first speaker on the program was President F. L. Beggs, of the Chamber of Commerce and he was followed by Clark S. Wheeler, director of agricultural extension service of Ohio State university.

M. C. Thomas, county agent of Marion county, was the next speaker introduced and delivered a brief speech on the work of county agents. Charles E. Thorne, director of Ohio experiment station at Wooster, also delivered a brief address.

At the conclusion of the speeches a round table discussion was held in which a great many of those present participated. The last event on the program was the temporary organization and election of officers for the farm bureau.

Thirty-six granges were invited to send representatives to the meeting, but there were a number of those who could not attend. However, two representatives of Pamona grange were in attendance as representatives at large for all the granges.

EPISCOPALIANS MAY PUBLISH PAPER TO PREACH GOSPEL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Louis, October 26.—Publication of a weekly periodical "based upon newspaper rather than on magazine lines" will be started by the Protestant Episcopal church on January 1, it was announced at today's session of the church session convention here. This, it was announced, would be the first step in an attempt to preach the gospel through the press.

The pastoral letter of the general convention of the church will deal with world conditions and will review the European war in its effect upon the other nations of the world and upon the United States in particular, according to another announcement made today.

The letter is being prepared by the Rt. Rev. Charles H. Brent, bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Charles P. Anderson, bishop of Chicago, and is the message of the general convention to the communicants of the church and will be presented at the final joint session tomorrow.

Subsequently it will be read in every Episcopal church in the United States.

FOR THIS AGE OF OURS

It can be truthfully said that this is a nervous age. One in which there is a great desire to excel, make speed, save time, crowd into one day the work of two. Is it any wonder that the nerves give way? How are your nerves? What are you doing to fortify and strengthen them? Have you tried Tono-Nerve? The Tonic of Tonics for your nerves and your health? If you are on the run with business worries or even household cares, you will find in this valuable remedy the relief you require. It quiets your nerves, builds your system and bids refreshing sleep a welcome.

The City Drug Store will refund your dollar if Tono-Nerve fails to help you.—Advertisement.

WHY I AM FOR WILSON

By Robert S. Lovett

Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Union Pacific Railway.

I am for Wilson, because I believe he has more really great achievements to his credit than most Presidents who have preceded him.

What President has shown more loyal friendship for every form of legitimate business? Even the railroads—the favorite field for political exploitation—have received justice at his hands.

Let us not forget what we owe Mr. Wilson for the present prosperity of the country. Are the American people going to permit an American President to be driven from office by an alien element in our population, for daring to insist upon American rights against a foreign government? There is no mistaking this issue.

Justifiable.

He: "Going home through a dark street last night I saw a man setting fire to his property."

She: "Mercy! Didn't you call the police?"

He: "Certainly not! It's no crime for a man to light his cigar."

Stagestruck Women.
William A. Page, the Chicago critic and publicity writer, says in the Woman's Home Companion in an article about stagestruck women:
"And what becomes of them? Caught in the eddies of frivolity, many of them temporarily abandon their stage ambitions in the kaleidoscopic life of Broadway. Others live in hall bedrooms, boil eggs over a gas jet and waste their young lives in the fruitless pursuit of a rainbow which they never find, only sooner or later to return home sadly and settle down to forget their stage ambitions. Others study, economize, sincerely strive for engagements, possibly get small roles with some obscure company and start in on a career which will be filled with many, many disappointments. And of the thousands who came so bravely to the front last year how many still remain in the lists? Not counting those who may have gone into musical comedy, perhaps a score still cherish the shrine of Marlowe and of Adams. For the rest, oblivion."

Shaw Didn't Like Himself.
"Many years ago in a house in Ashley Gardens," writes G. Bernard Shaw in the New Witness, "I was walking along a corridor with other guests at a musical evening when I saw coming toward me a man who produced an extraordinarily disagreeable impression on me, a tall young man in evening dress, with a blond beard and, as it seemed to me, a hateful expression. He was coming straight at me. I moved aside to avoid him, and he moved, too, apparently to get into my way again. An impulse of rage at this insult was checked just in time by the discovery that instead of walking along a corridor I was crossing a square landing and that the detestable apparition who had chilled my very soul with his abominable aspect was a reflection of myself in the wall of mirror which the tenant of the Ashley Gardens flat had put up to give his cramped dwelling an appearance of spacious magnificence."

Power In Plant Cells.
Along with the formation of the sugar, and caused in part by its accumulation, there develop within the minute cells of the blueberry plants enormous osmotic pressures, which enable the plant to push its buds open, F. V. Coville writes in the National Geographic Magazine.

These pressures are frequently as high as seven atmospheres or more than 100 pounds. To the square inch—a pressure that would start a leak in a low pressure steam engine. The pressure may become as high as thirty atmospheres or 450 pounds to the square inch—a force sufficient to blow the cylinder head off of a thousand horsepower Corliss engine. The reason the plant does not explode is because it is broken up into many extremely small and strongly built cells instead of having one big interior cavity. These minute chambers are often as thick walled proportionately as an artillery shell.

A Famous War Horse.
Bucephalus, the charger that carried Alexander the Great through all his campaigns, received his name from the fact that, although white, he had a black mark resembling an ox's head on his forehead.

A Thessalonian had offered the horse for sale to Philip of Macedon, but as none of the monarch's attendants could manage him the king ordered his own to take him away. Alexander, who was present, expressed his regret at losing so fine an animal, and Philip replied that he would buy the horse if his son could ride him. The offer was accepted by Alexander, who succeeded in the attempt. Bucephalus would never suffer any other person to mount him.

Airing a Room.

In airing a room there are two things to be remembered—first, that the impure air must be allowed to escape and, secondly, that fresh air must be admitted. Impure air in a room is always warm and will therefore rise toward the ceiling, when it will escape if the window is opened at the top, while cold fresh air will enter through the lower part of the window when opened.

A Grand Canyon Sunrise.
A sunrise in the Grand canyon lasts as long as you please. Each hour is a sunrise for some cavern deeper than the last, and, in fact, there are many where it has yet to rise for the first time since the canyon was made by those ages of running water.

MISSIONARIES DISCUSS WORK AMONG TURKS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Toledo, Oct. 26.—Addresses by missionaries, an automobile ride for delegates, a business session with election of officers and miscellaneous business will occupy the third day of the convention of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions here today. More than 300 delegates are in attendance.

During the afternoon there will be a separate meeting for women. Miss Ellen Stone and other woman missionaries will speak.

War and the work in Turkey will be discussed at the morning session by four men.

The Rev. C. T. Riggs of Constantinople, who was born of missionary parents in Marsovan; Dr. A. R. Hoover, ten years a medical missionary at Talas; Dr. C. E. Clark of Sivas and the Rev. W. N. Chambers of Adana, who has been 37 years in Turkey.

"Bulgaria's Future," will be discussed by the Rev. T. T. Holway of Sofia. Missionaries from the heart of Africa, at Chisamba and Chitore, will also speak.

Tonight the president's annual address will be given by Dr. E. C. Moore of Cambridge. Four mission converts, one each from Africa, Peking, Madura, and Turkey, will tell what the American board has done for their people. One of the thrilling moments of the convention will occur when five student volunteers will give brief addresses and will be solemnly consecrated to their work in the foreign field.

The meeting will close on Friday morning with addresses about conditions under the Russian flag, by Dr. Charles Ussher, who has just passed through the typhus epidemic and siege at Van, Turkey, and the Rev. Robert Stapleton of Erzurum, who went to Turkey in 1897.

HOME ENTERED BY BURGLARS; TAKE WATCH AND CHAIN

The home of John Ayers, 148 East Main street, early last evening was burglarized and a watch and a lavaliere stolen. Chief Sheridan investigating the robbery last night, said he believed it the work of amateurs, on account of the manner in which the thieves gained entrance to the house.

A pane of glass was removed from a window in the rear of the house. Mr. Ayers returned home from work was unable to get into the house from the front door and then tried the rear door. It is thought the burglars were in the house then and hearing Mr. Ayers, escaped through a dining room window. The Ayers family was away from home at the time of the robbery.

AUTO IS LIFTED FROM MAN; WALKS AWAY UNINJURED

Knocked down in the street by an automobile, rolled under the car, making it necessary to lift it off his body, getting up with only a slight bruise and able to walk away was the experience of Walter Wyrick, an employee of the Ohio Electric railway last evening.

Wyrick was waiting at the southeast corner of Fourth and West Main streets for an east bound car last evening a few minutes before seven o'clock, and when it slowed down for the stop at the Fourth street corner he started diagonally across the street to board it. Just then Eastern N. Bradley came driving east in West Main street in his automobile and started to turn the corner. Wyrick was in its path and could not jump aside in time to avoid being struck.

Mr. Bradley had perfect control of his machine and had his foot on the brake, stopping it almost as soon as he struck Wyrick. Had it not been for that fact Wyrick might have been killed or maimed for life. A crowd soon collected and several bystanders assisted in lifting the car off Wyrick's body. He got up and remarked that it was a mighty close shave and acknowledged that he was at fault in cutting across the street and that he ought to have looked out for machines. His only injury consisted in a slight abrasion on the back of the head where he struck the brick paving.
